

Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene
Center for Healthy Homes and Community Services
Youth Camps
Critical Violation/Good Standing

COMAR 10.16.06.02B

(11-1) “Critical violation” means failure to comply with:

- (a) Regulation .21 of this chapter; (Background checks and clearances)
- (b) Regulation .22A(1) and (2) of this chapter; (Health plan approved annually, present at camp)
- (c) Regulation .23A of this chapter; (Health Supervisor)
- (d) Regulation .23B and D of this chapter; (2 CPR, 2 First Aid)
- (e) Regulation .27A—C of this chapter; (Camper Health form – Dr., Parent, Emg. Contact, health issues)
- (f) Regulation .34A of this chapter; (Written emergency plan)
- (g) Regulation .35 of this chapter; (Child abuse reporting procedures)
- (h) Regulation .46A(1) and (2) of this chapter; (Fire – compliance and fire marshal inspection)
- (i) Regulation .47C and F(6)—(9) of this chapter; (Swimming and watercraft supervision)
- (j) Regulation .48D(1) of this chapter; (Riflery and airgun supervision)
- (k) Regulation .49C of this chapter; (Archery supervision)
- (l) Regulation .50B of this chapter; (Horseback riding supervision)
- (m) Regulation .51B of this chapter; (Other specialized activity supervision)
- (n) Regulation .52A(1) and B(1) of this chapter; (Written safety plans for all specialized activities and trips)
- (o) Regulation .53A(1) and (2) of this chapter; or (Transportation – State law, written safety plan)
- (p) Regulation .54 of this chapter. (Routine supervision)

(16-1) “Good standing” means:

- (a) Compliance with the:
 - (i) Annual report and self-assessment submission requirements as specified in Regulation .06 of this chapter; and
 - (ii) Application procedure and fee requirements as specified in Regulation .08 of this chapter; and
- (b) A camp that in the previous calendar year paid the application fee as set forth in COMAR 10.01.17.02; and
- (c) Had no critical violations of this chapter found by the Department during an inspection:
 - (i) In the last 2 calendar years; or
 - (ii) For a camp in good standing, in the last calendar year that an inspection took place.